NIGHT MOVES: No 2

Dear

Just a few lines this time as we wanted to let you know the good news as soon as possible that we are to play at the Reading Festival.

It was confirmed earlier this week that the Marquee would like us to open the Festival on the Friday afternoon. We will be playing just after 2 pm, so particularly for those of you who have never seen us before, and were thinking of coming down, make sure you're there!

Hopefully, we may have a chance to say hello in person - let us know if you are coming down.

Other news - we will be touring from mid September onwards and are hoping to do a series of dates in the North (for the first time) on the tour - you will be notified of all dates as soon as they are finalised.

Moves are currently afoot that might take us to America later this year - for recording and touring. However, much of this depends on our success in finding a suitable vocalist - the venture which is occupying most of our time at the moment. Hopefully though, come October, we will be touring the new material with an augmented line-up.

The album is still selling well, and we had a very good write-up in the current issue of the Genesis fan club magazine, which has generated considerable interest.

If you are interested, besides the usual merchandise, we've also discovered some of our original "1980 Tour" badges - available from us here @ 40 pence, including p & p.

Best wishes from us all.
